Wines & WINEMAKER

Great wines start with great grapes. Liquidity has 30 acres under vine, including 30-year-old blocks of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Viognier, and Merlot.

Our winemaking process is tailored to each individual variety. Hand harvesting, whole-bunch pressing, wild fermentation, gentle maceration and the exclusive use of French oak are just a few of the time-honoured techniques we employ. Three of the stand-out results include bright Viognier, rich, fruity Chardonnay and elegant Okanagan Pinot Noir.

A mix of creativity, passion for the outdoors, and love of science fuels our Winemaker, Amy Paynter. Her New Zealand roots and working travels through California and South Africa have all enriched her winemaking style. Amy's previous role as assistant winemaker at Kelowna's CedarCreek Estate Winery helped shape her dedication to creating and sharing site-expressive Okanagan Valley Wines.
