Wines & Winemaker

Great wines start with great grapes. Liquidity has 30 acres under vine, including 20-year-old blocks of Chardonnay, Pinot Gris, and Pinot Noir, as well as Riesling planted in 2014, Viognier, Merlot, and a rare small lot of mature German Dornfelder.

Our winemaking process is tailored to each individual variety. Hand harvesting, whole-bunch pressing, wild fermentation, gentle maceration and the exclusive use of French oak are just a few of the time-honoured techniques we employ. Three of the stand-out results include bright Viognier, rich, fruity Chardonnay and elegant Okanagan Pinot Noir.

A mix of creativity, passion for the outdoors, and love of science fuels our winemaker, Amy Paynter. Her New Zealand roots, and working travels through California and South Africa, bring unique insight to Amy's creation of site-expressive South Okanagan wines.
